

2019 Pitching Summit Presented by Softball Excellence

Professional Development Documentation

Dates: August 5-7, 2019

Location: Tampa, FL

Credibility: This is the 5th annual Pitching Summit, which is designed exclusively for college coaches, and the only exclusive educational opportunity available to college pitching coaches anywhere in the country. This three-day course is an extensive deep-dive into the most important position on a college softball team.

Format: Presentations, Roundtables, Discussion Groups, Lectures, Networking

Website: www.pitchingsummit.com

Content:

During this three-day Pitching Summit, college coaches will attend lectures, expert panel sessions, and participate in roundtable discussions. The coaches will learn about topics such as game management, pitch development, competitive workouts, seasonal practices, the mental and technical aspects of training pitchers to succeed, and so much more, from the finest college pitching coaches in the game. Also highlighted are unique and innovative teaching and coaching tools, player aids and products.

Instruction Time:

Over 18 hours of instruction, lectures, panels, roundtable discussions and networking over the course of the three-day Summit.

Speakers/Clinicians:

Cindy Bristow, Assistant Coach at UC Riverside and one of the most renowned and experienced pitching instructors and clinicians in the world, will host the Pitching Summit and will be joined by a cadre of elite college pitching coaches, including:

- Lonni Alameda, Florida State University, Head Softball Coach
- Rachel Lawson, University of Kentucky, Head Softball Coach
- Jen Rocha, Associate Head Coach, University of Oklahoma
- Dana Sorensen, Sorensen Elite Softball Pitching
- Perry Husband, Mental Game Specialist

4211 Saltwater Blvd, Tampa, Florida 33615-5630
www.softballexcellence.com • www.pitchingsummit.com
800-995-1014 • info@softballexcellence.com

